Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3, drawn to a connecting structure, classified in class 24, subclass 598.1.
- II. Claims 4-8, 10 and 11, drawn to a novelty system and the method of constructing the novelty, classified in class 403, subclass 229.
- III. Claims 12-16, drawn to a method for constructing a connecting connector, classified in class 29, subclass 227.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the novelty system does not require the prongs extending away in generally V-shape configuration. The subcombination has separate utility such as mounting a pipe to a hole in a wall.

Inventions I and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the process as claimed can be practice by another materially different connecting structure without the V-shape configuration.

Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant, case the different inventions have different functions. Invention II is concerned with a process of constructing a novelty from shipping to unpacking the novelty. Invention III is concerned with a method of constructing a connecting connector unrelated to the method of constructing the novelty.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Mr. Donald M. Cislo on September 28, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Art Unit: 3679

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
